MUSEUM OVERVIEW

OUR PURPOSE

The Redlands Coast Museum exists to collect, preserve, honour, display and share the rich history of artefacts and stories of the people of the region, and about our diverse culture and heritage. We aim to foster a deeper understanding and appreciation of the Redlands Coast's past, create a sense of belonging, and provide an engaging space for learning, connection, and community involvement.

WHO WE ARE

Redlands Coast Museum is a vibrant community hub where history comes alive. Located in Cleveland, QLD, we house over 20,000 artefacts that tell the rich stories of the Redlands Coast and its people. Our museum offers engaging exhibits, dynamic events and educational programs that connect visitors to the past. More than just a Museum, we're a place to discover, connect and belong. Whether through our captivating displays, educational programs, or community-driven activities. We offer an enriching experience that connects people with the past and with each other. We're a place where memories are cherished, traditions are celebrated, and new stories are created.

MUSEUM VISION & MISSION

VISION

To be a dynamic, inclusive, and innovative social history museum that not only reflects the stories of our community and its people, but also serves as a vibrant hub for discovery, interaction, and cultural exchange, becoming a must-visit destination on the Redlands Coast.

MISSION

We are dedicated to preserving and sharing the stories of the people of the Redlands Coast. Our mission is to be the trusted keepers of our community's social history. To safeguard and showcase the significant artefacts and personal stories from the past and present. We prioritise excellent customer service, inclusivity and continuous improvement to enhance visitor satisfaction and community engagement. By leveraging both physical and digital spaces, we provide engaging and educational experiences through our collections, exhibitions and events. We believe every visitor has the potential to enrich our culture and heritage. By celebrating people's stories and building new narratives, we preserve our community's heritage for future generations.
